Neilson Dining Hall, Round Room, Douglass Campus
177 Ryders Lane, New Brunswick
The Rutgers Living History Society will host its eighth annual meeting and brunch to honor its members, induct new members, and confer the 2010 Stephen E. Ambrose Oral History Award on Dave Isay, award-winning broadcaster and founder of StoryCorps. Isay has recorded more than 25,000 interviews nationwide in his StoryCorps MobileBooths since 2005. For more information, contact the Rutgers Oral History Archives, 732-932-8190, or email Sandra Holyoak, holyoak@history.rutgers.edu. Cost: $35

1:30 PM – 2:00 PM
Tour of the New Visitor Center
Rutgers Visitor Center, Busch Campus
100 Sutphen Road, Piscataway
We are delighted to take you on a tour of the new Rutgers Visitor Center, the host of all undergraduate tours and the gateway to Rutgers. Here, Rutgers’ history is etched in the walls: exhibits by design firm Ralph Appelbaum Associates include a timeline of events from the prerevolutionary founding of Queen’s College through the birth of intercollegiate American football to the present day. Cost: Included in registration fee.
*Bus departs from Winants Hall at 1:15 p.m.

1:30 PM – 2:30 PM
School of Arts and Sciences’ Rutgers University Cell and DNA Repository Tour
Nelson Biological Laboratories, Busch Campus
604 Allison Road, Piscataway
The School of Arts and Sciences’ RUCDR, the largest university-based DNA repository in the world, will host tours of its facility and research on the Busch Campus. You will learn about the RUCDR’s key role in activities and research that enable researchers worldwide with gene discovery leading to the understanding, diagnoses, and treatments for common yet complex diseases such as Alzheimer’s, autism, and kidney diseases. For more information, visit rucdr.org. Cost: Included in registration fee.
*Bus departs from Winants Hall at 1:15 p.m.
2:30 PM – 4:00 PM
The Art of Science Exhibit
Civic Square Building, Room 710, College Avenue Campus
33 Livingston Avenue, New Brunswick

Please join the Research Collaboratory for Structural Bioinformatics Protein Data Bank for the Art of Science exhibit, which offers a look at the beauty inherent in the 3D shapes of proteins and nucleic acids. Smaller than the wavelength of light, these biomolecules have fascinating shapes, such as the long strands of collagen and the spherical shells of viruses. This colorful multimedia show presents a variety of structures and provides information about how they work in the body. The tour will include a short lecture at 3:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.
Cost: Included in registration fee

2:30 PM – 3:30 PM
Invisible Wounds: Impact of Combat on the 21st Century Warrior Lecture
Rutgers Student Center, Room 410
126 College Avenue, New Brunswick

Dr. Thomas Morgan of the Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology will speak about the impact of combat, particularly the psychological costs to the soldier and family, on those serving in Iraq and Afghanistan. Specific focus will be on veterans who return to college using the Post 9-11 GI bill.
Cost: Included in registration fee

2:30 PM – 3:30 PM
Back to the Forward: A Brief History of the Yiddish Press Lecture
The Bildner Center, College Avenue Campus
12 College Avenue, New Brunswick

Join Professor Eddy Portnoy of the School of Arts and Sciences’ Department of Jewish Studies, as he discusses the importance of the Yiddish press amongst the Jewish population during the 19th and 20th centuries. A kind of “paper university” with five daily newspapers reaching millions of readers in the 1920s, explore the history and development of the Yiddish press as a popular phenomenon in the United States and Eastern Europe. Tours of the Bildner Center for the Study of Jewish Life are also available.
Cost: Included in registration fee

5:00 PM – 9:00 PM
Old Guard Dinner (Honoring the Class of 1960)
Brower Commons, College Avenue Campus
145 College Avenue, New Brunswick

All members of the Class of 1960 are honored by the Rutgers University Alumni Association as they are inducted into the Old Guard of Rutgers. All classes prior to 1960 are invited to attend and welcome the new inductees. Throughout the evening, you will be entertained by the Rutgers Glee Club and the big band sound of the jazz ensemble from Mason Gross School of the Arts. Enjoy a full open bar at the cocktail reception and a deliciously prepared surf and turf dinner. If you attend only the Old Guard Dinner, you are not required to pay the reunion registration fee.
Cost: Class of 1960 - $40, Classes of 1959 and prior, and all guests - $60

6:00 PM – 9:00 PM
Opera Night at The Rutgers Club
The Rutgers Club, College Avenue Campus
199 College Avenue, New Brunswick

Join us at The Rutgers Club for an outstanding opera performance by Ariana Ciolino MGSA’05, ’08, a graduate of the Mason Gross Master of Fine Arts program. She is no stranger to The Rutgers Club, having performed four years in a row for the club’s annual Opera Night. Audiences are pleased by her shows, which demonstrate a mastery of opera arias, as well as show-stoppers from Broadway such as “Phantom of the Opera.” A four-course dinner will be served. Menu is available at Ralumni.com/Reunion.
Cost: $40

6:30 PM – 9:30 PM
Murder Mystery Reunion Dinner by the Cook Community Alumni Association
Neilson Dining Hall, Rectangle Room, Douglass Campus
177 Ryders Lane, New Brunswick

Everyone is welcome to help solve a campus crime! Was it Dean Flamingo Flap—he could never be trusted! Or Dean Beaver Slap—he always seemed to be hiding something! Or was it Dean Thunder Clap, a mysterious character indeed! Join these invited guests and together we’ll solve the 2010 reunion murder mystery in the Rectangle Room. Eating there now will scare you more than it ever did before!
Cost: $50

6:30 PM – 9:30 PM
University College Alumni Mixer
Panico’s Brick Oven Pizza Bar & Grill,
94 Church Street, New Brunswick

Come back to the banks of the Old Raritan to celebrate reunion at UCRNBA’s Alumni mixer with food, beverages, entertainment, door prizes, and camaraderie. Register early as seating is limited!
Cost: $25
7:00 PM – 10:30 PM
Alumni Wine Tasting, Cooking Demo, and Entertainment!
Busch Dining Hall
608 Bartholomew Road, Piscataway
Start the evening off with a delicious wine-tasting experience paired with an exciting cooking demonstration by Rutgers’ own award-winning chef, Sebastian Nieto. This delectable three-course cooking demonstration includes the pairing of three different wines, dinner samples, and a copy of the recipes! You are then invited to enjoy a cabaret performance by the Alumni of the Livingston Theatre Company in the adjacent room, or hang in the lounge with friends. The musical revue will feature songs from the Broadway stage with a fun Rutgers twist. The menu is available at Alumni.com/Reunion. Cost: $35

8:00 PM – 11:00 PM
An Evening Under the Stars with the School of Arts and Sciences
Physics and Astronomy Building, Busch Campus
136 Frelinghuysen Road, Piscataway
Join Professor Tad Pryor of the School of Arts and Sciences for a discussion of exciting objects in the night sky and telescopes of Rutgers University. If the weather is clear, the Schommer Observatory will be open on the rooftop to observe Venus, Mars, Saturn, and other visible stars and galaxies. Light refreshments provided. Seating is limited. Cost: Included in registration fee.

10:15 AM – 11:15 AM
President McCormick’s Reunion Address
Kirkpatrick Chapel, Old Queens Campus
81 Somerset Street, New Brunswick
Spend an hour with President Richard L. McCormick at Kirkpatrick Chapel as he discusses the latest university initiatives and speaks about opportunities and challenges facing the university. All registered alumni and their guests are welcome.

9:00 AM – 11:00 AM
Continental Breakfast
Winants Hall Lawn, Old Queens Campus
7 College Avenue, New Brunswick
Get charged up for a great day of reunion events, starting with continental breakfast in front of Winants Hall. Catch up with classmates, then pick up class banners from the Assembly Room in Winants Hall and gather for the All-Alumni Parade. Cost: Included in registration fee.

9:15 AM – 10:15 AM
All-Alumni Interfaith Chapel Service
Kirkpatrick Chapel, Old Queens Campus
81 Somerset Street, New Brunswick
Let the bell of Old Queens call you to this interfaith service of thanksgiving and remembrance. The chapel service, once a traditional element of the Rutgers educational experience, was revived more than 40 years ago for reunion by the late Walter Seward RC’17. Now an interfaith service, enjoy the sounds of the Glee Club and Kirkpatrick Chapel organ during this meaningful ceremony.

11:30 AM – 12:00 PM
All-Alumni Parade
Kicks off from Old Queens Campus
7 College Avenue, New Brunswick
Follow the Alumni Band down College Avenue for the annual All-Alumni Parade. Thrill to the cheers of admirers, parade watchers, and family members as we proudly join in a Rutgers tradition. President Richard L. McCormick and other Rutgers dignitaries will greet and cheer alumni on the reviewing stand.
12:00 PM – 2:00 PM
Reunion Block Party Celebration & Lunch
Voorhees Mall, College Avenue Campus, New Brunswick
Bring your family back to Voorhees Mall for a block party under the peering eyes of Silent Willie’s statue! Enjoy a great barbeque on the beautiful campus lawn where you will also find many family-friendly activities, including inflatable amusements, miniature golf, and a live band. Other activities include face painting, caricaturists, crafts, and much more! Cost: Included in registration fee.

2:00 PM – 3:30 PM

Rutgers is working to make a difference in the lives of those suffering from hunger in its new initiative, Rutgers Against Hunger (RAH). We are asking alumni to participate and contribute to this university wide campaign by bringing canned or boxed food items to the events you plan to attend at Reunion. Containers will be located at each event so that your donation can make a difference in the local community. Thank you in advance for helping us with this worthy cause.
