HOMECOMING 2010: RUAA Volunteer Opportunities

Fire-it up on Friday:
October 1, 2010 - The Rutgers Homecoming Festival and Fireworks, (4-9 p.m.)
Chartered organizations are invited to volunteer as a group at the most widely attended Homecoming event of the entire weekend, where we anticipate more than 4,000 people to participate in the fun and exciting contests and activities we offer. Help to show your alumni pride for Rutgers by volunteering to make this Premier event a huge success! We invite your chartered organization to host a carnival game and share your Rutgers pride. To sign-up individually or for your group, please e-mail Homecoming@winants.rutgers.edu by September 2, 2010. Each group will have the option to choose their activity on a first come first served basis, so contact us today!

Celebrate on Saturday:
October 2, 2010 - Scarlet Square Festival (TBD, 3 hours prior to the game)
As in years past, the RUAA and Athletics will be out on the lawn of E-field on Busch campus providing the popular Homecoming Dollar Menu, entertainment from Rutgers most talented students, contests, giveaways, and Kids Zone inflatable amusements. We invite you to celebrate the day, and gather with your chartered groups to congregate on the field and enjoy the festivities. We will offer the options to rent a tent and tables, so that your group may plan its own tailgating parties/activities. Please see attached for the updated Millers rentals prices and catering menus to choose from; please confirm your interest by September 2 by e-mailing Homecoming@wintants.rutgers.edu.

Service the community on Sunday:
October 3, 2010 - Run for RAH 5k and 1 Mile fun Walk (8-12 p.m.)
Sign-up your chartered organization and join in the fight against hunger! Rutgers University, in collaboration with food banks throughout New Jersey, provide the resources to feed children, families, seniors, and other New Jersey residents struggling with rising food costs and spiraling residential bills. Band together with the RUAA and Rutgers as one unified group to make a difference! For information about creating teams, contests, or to register for the Run for RAH, please visit Ralumni.com/homecomingrun. Team names to be submitted to Homecoming@winants.rutgers.edu by September 2.
Homecoming Contests

Fire-it up on Friday:

Rutgers Homecoming Idol
Friday, October 1, 2010
Do you think you have what it takes to be the first Rutgers Homecoming Idol? Upload your two-minute video to a video sharing site (YouTube, Yahoo Video, etc.), then send your video link to homecoming@winants.rutgers.edu and let the battle begin! Your video is due by 11:59 p.m. ET on September 13, 2010. Contestants must be 18 or older to enter this contest. A group of semifinalists will be entered in Homecoming Idol’s online voting, scheduled from September 20, 2010, to September 24, 2010. The top six contestants will be selected from that group and will compete at the Homecoming Kickoff Festival at Buccleuch Park hosted by Magic 98.3, WMGQ in New Brunswick on October 1, 2010. More information and contest rules are available at Ralumni.com/homecomingidol.

Scarlet Cherry Pie Survivor
Friday, October 1, 2010
Register for the most delicious and exciting contest at Homecoming! The first person to survive eating the entire Scarlet Cherry Pie hands free wins the grand prize. Just come hungry and we will provide the pie! To register, email homecoming@winants.rutgers.edu by September 20, 2010.

Celebrate on Saturday:

Crazy Scarlet Knight Fan
Saturday, October 2, 2010
Are you Rutgers’ biggest fan? Break out your face paint, crazy props, and your best Rutgers gear and show us that you are a Crazy Scarlet Knight Fan at the Scarlet Square Tailgate Party. Judging will be based on spirit, creativity, and originality. A prize is awarded to the winner, and the winner will be announced at the Homecoming game on the scoreboard! To register, email homecoming@winants.rutgers.edu by September 20, 2010.

Rutgers Wing Bowl 2010
Saturday, October 2, 2010
Everyone knows that Buffalo wings are a staple at any football tailgate and this contest is for those that like them hot! Wing Bowl 2010 takes place at the Scarlet Square Tailgate Party on Saturday, October 10! See who can eat the most wings for a long and spicy 2 minutes! Prizes are awarded to winners. Registration is required and space is limited. To register, email homecoming@winants.rutgers.edu by September 20, 2010.
