ALFREDO SANTIAGO
An advocate for equality

Throughout his life, Alfredo Santiago was an impassioned, caring educator who was devoted to creating equal access to education for Latino and African-American youth.

Alfredo’s long career in education was highlighted by his work at Rutgers, and at other universities, where he was able to increase the community development fund to create significant financial aid opportunities for all college students.

Through the Alfredo Santiago Endowed Scholarship, Alfredo’s dream of a day when all students have the same educational opportunities—regardless of color, class, or gender—not only endures, but moves closer to becoming a reality.
